10th Annual Marsha Martin Scholarship Program

AgriLand Farm Credit established an agricultural scholarship program in memory of Marsha Martin, a Paris, Texas, native who died of cancer in 2000. Marsha made her mark on the agricultural industry and was the first woman to hold the position of vice president in the Farm Credit Bank of Texas, and serve as the chairman and chief executive officer of the Farm Credit Administration.

“Marsha was a proud East Texan and a great supporter of rural youth and agriculture,” said Roger Brist, AgriLand Farm Credit chief executive officer. “We are pleased to continue her legacy by offering scholarships to these deserving young people.”

AgriLand Farm Credit awarded its’ first scholarship in 2000, and in the last decade, has awarded over $56,000 in scholarship monies in Marsha’s honor.

The requirements for those who would like to apply are:

1. The applicant must be a child or grandchild of a current stockholder, or be a current stockholder themselves;
2. The applicant must be a high-school graduate in 2010;
3. The applicant must be pursuing a degree related to Agriculture (example: agricultural business, animal science, agricultural economics, etc.);
4. Supplemental information may be attached (essays, bios, resumes, transcripts, etc.).
